Plagiarism Policy

All entries in Phi Theta Kappa's Nota Bene competition must be the original works of the author. All entries will be subject to checks to detect plagiarism. If plagiarism is determined to exist, the entry and all entries by the same author will be disqualified from the Nota Bene competition. The author's chapter advisor and college president will be notified of the plagiarism and proof will be provided to the college.

All entries in the 2009 Nota Bene competition must be received by March 2, 2009. Mail entries to:

Nota Bene
The Center for Excellence
1625 Eastover Drive
Jackson, MS 39211

Entries should be printed on white paper, with no graphic or color illustrations or fonts. Faxed and emailed entries cannot be accepted. Due to the large volume of submissions, manuscripts cannot be returned, nor can members be notified when manuscripts arrive at Society Headquarters. If members require proof of arrival, please send manuscript(s) Return Receipt Requested. Only the authors whose works are accepted will receive personal notification. Winners will be listed on the Phi Theta Kappa website after September 1, 2009.
